No.	Rule	Answer / Notes	Situation
1.	Page 17, Use of the penalty marker, 1.C	True	As a general rule, the official throwing a flag should throw the flag in the air on a dead ball foul and to the specific spot or general direction of the infraction on a live ball foul.
2.	Page 15, Sounding Whistle, 2.H.2	False – spot of the ball will be determined by location and status of the ball when the whistle was blown.	When an inadvertent whistle is blown on a running play, the end of the run will determine where the official spots the ball.
3.	Page 12, Pregame Responsibilities, X.A.1	False – clock operator should report to the game official at least 30 minutes prior to the start of the game.	Prior to the game, the clock operator should be available to meet with the game official at least 20 minutes prior to the start of the game.
4.	Page 11, Pregame Responsibilities, IX.C.3	False – the Umpire has the final say.	The referee has the final say over any equipment concern or issue prior to the start of the game.
5.	Page 13, Pregame Responsibilities	False – clip should always be placed at the back end of the line-to-gain indicator.	The HL should place his clip on the front edge of the yard line closest to the front line-to-gain rod to ensure maximum efficiency with any measurement that might become necessary.
6.	Page 16, Stopping/Starting the Clock, 1.C.2	True	It's OK for an official to call time out if it appears that a team is trying to consume time. In this situation, the clock will only start on the snap.
7.	Page 19, Prior to Free Kick, 1.F	False – within 25 seconds.	After a score or try, a flag for delay of game should be thrown if the ball has not been kicked within 35 seconds.
8.	Page 19, Prior to Free Kick, III.D & IV.C	False – just the opposite – the HL is responsible for counting R players and LJ counts K players.	On a free kick on a five-man formation, the HL is responsible for counting K players while the LJ is responsible for counting R players.
9.	Page 20, Correcting Obvious Errors in Timing, II.A	False - prior to the second live ball following discovery of the error.	The referee is empowered to correct an obvious error in timing, but only if the error is discovered prior to the first live ball following discovery of the error (unless the period has officially ended).

No.	Rule	Answer / Notes	Situation
10.	Page 22, Controlling the Sideline and Team Box, III.C	False – a second infraction results in a 5-yard penalty.	A second sideline warning results in a 15 yard penalty.
11.	Page 25-27, Kickoff	True	On a kickoff, all officials except R should be alert for first touching by K, and mark the spot by throwing a bean bag.
12.	Page 27, Kickoff, V.A.11	False – the BJ is responsible for timing of the 25-second count.	On a 5-man kickoff, R should rule on any touchback and keep time to ensure that K doesn't violate the 25 second clock.
13.	Page 40, Forward pass, 1.7	True	On a forward pass, R is solely responsible for ruling on intentional grounding, but may also ask for assistance from a covering official.
14.	Page 29, Keys and Priority of Keys, V. Motion	True	If motion occurs, the strength of the formation won't be determined until the snap, and may result in changes to keys.
15.	Page 29, Keys and Priority of Keys, IV. Unbalanced Formation	False – the key for the BJ is the widest eligible receiver.	In an unbalanced formation, the BJ always keys in on the inside receiver to the strength of the formation.
16.	Page 44, Scrimmage Kick, II.B.1	True	On a scrimmage kick formation, the U is responsible for illegal contact on the snapper.
17.	Page 49, After safety, Try or field goal, 1.D.	False – the BJ controls the time, but it's one minute following score/no score.	The BJ should begin timing following any score, and should also ensure that no more than 45 seconds passes following the referees good/no good signal.
18.	Page 54, Injury Time-Out Procedure, II.A.	False – this is the responsibility of the Umpire.	During an injury timeout, it is the responsibility of R to ensure that coaches and/or health care professionals aren't on the field for purposes of coaching.
19.	Page 50, Administering Penalties, III.B & IV.A.	True	On penalty enforcement, the LJ holds the enforcement spot, while the HL should proceed to the succeeding spot.
